

Alibaba and forty thieves

In a prosperous city of Arabia there lived two brothers, elder one named Casim was a rich merchant and he lead a luxurious life in his bungalow.

but the younger one named Alibaba was a poor wood cutter ,he used to work hard from dawn to dusk for his living .

One day while cutting wood in the forest Alibaba heard clip-clop sound of horse and saw heap of dust rising from the middle of forest.

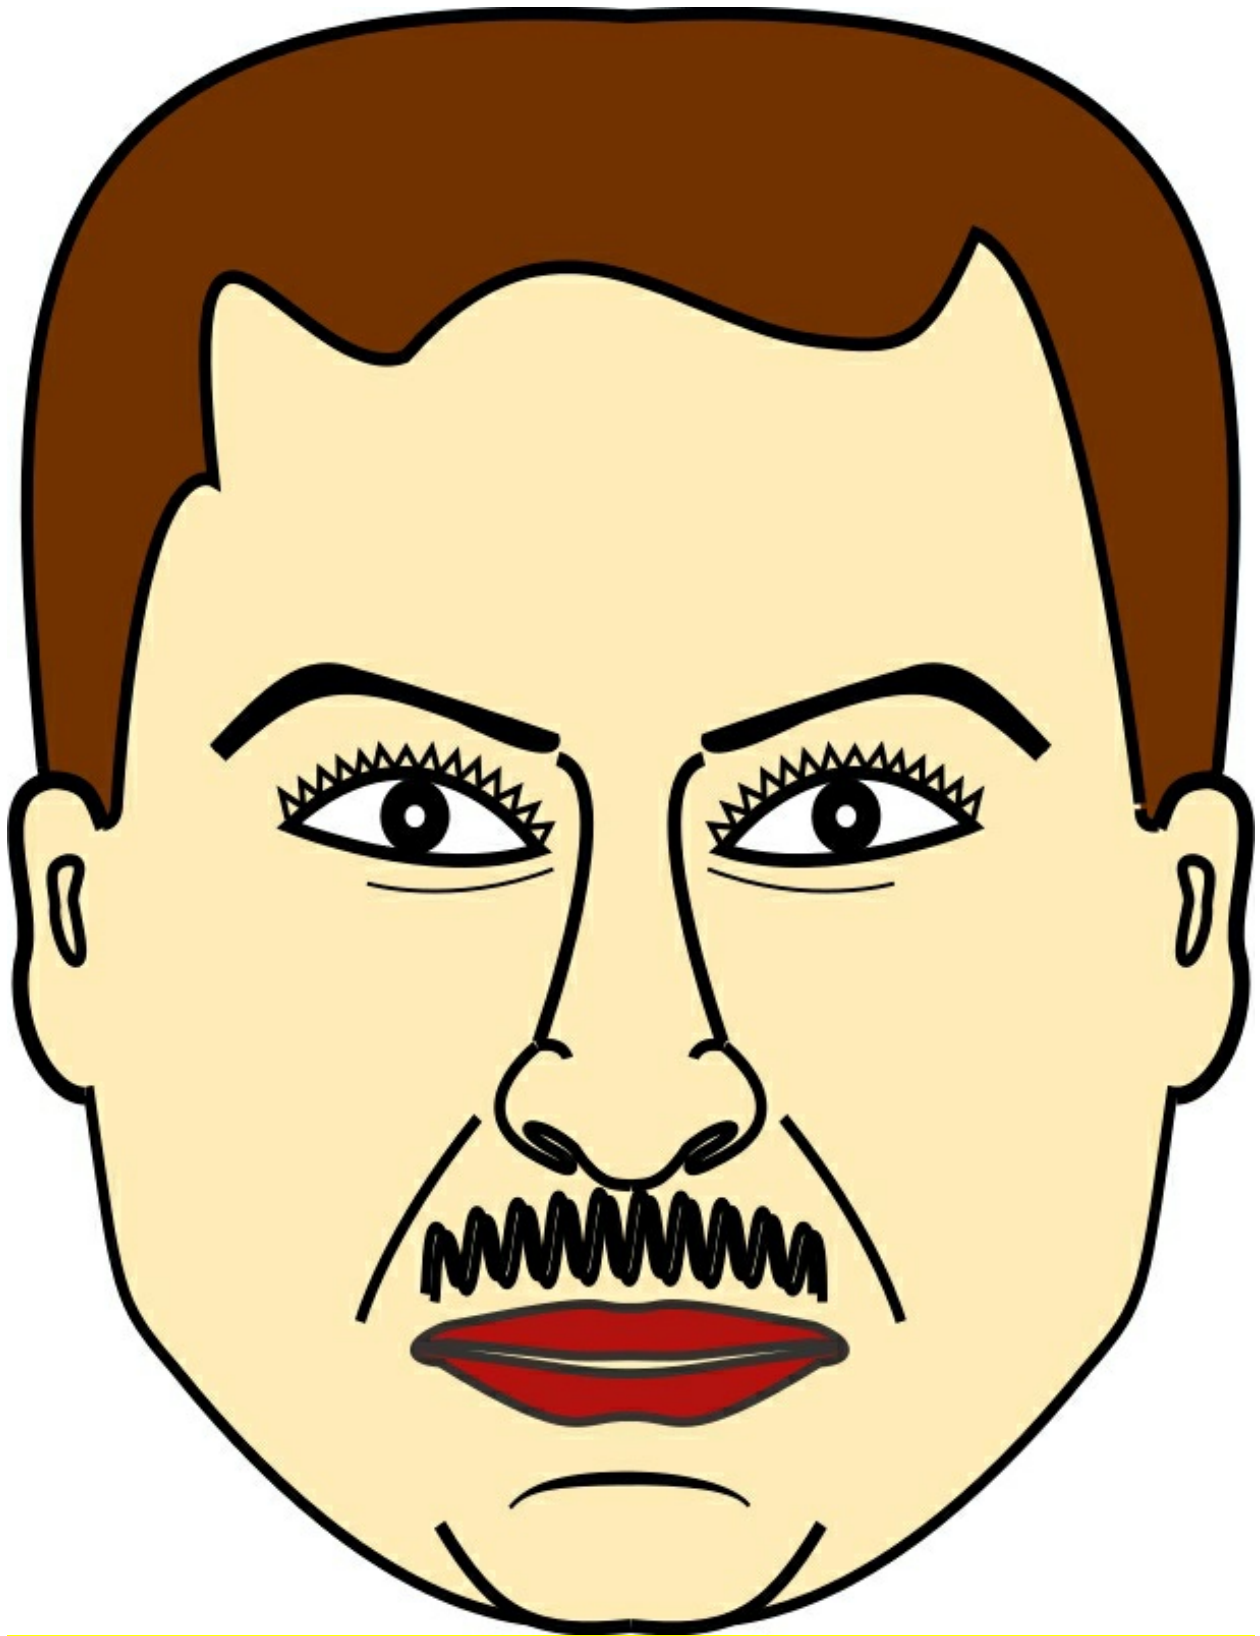

He saw 40 thieves riding on the horses they had sharp swords and knives with them and had sacks of gold.

They reached near a cave and the chief of the thieves went to the front of the cave and said " open sesame open"

as soon as he said so ,door of the cave opened itself with a creaking sound,thieves went inside the cave and after sometime they came back with empty hands.

Alibaba was watching all this by hiding behind a bush,he wondered what's inside the cave why the thieves went inside it.

As soon as the thieves went away Alibaba went near the cave and said "Open sesame open" door of the cave opened and Alibaba went inside, there he shouted with excitement, the cave was filled with gold stolen by the thieves .

He filled his pocket and a sack with gold and walked outside the cave and said " Close sesame close" and the door was closed

,then he took the gold to his home ,and he showed his wife .As she saw the gold she stood still for a moment with surprise.Alibaba explained to his wife how he found it.

Alibaba and his wife then started to count the coins but they couldn't finish counting all the coins so they decided to measure it with a balance ,she went to Casims bungalow and borrowed a balance .

Casims wife was eager to know why Alibabas wife need a balance

So she put some glue under the balance to findout what they are measuring.

While Alibabas wife was measuring the gold coins in the balance ,one gold coins stucked on the glue .

When the balance was returned,Casims wife saw the gold on the balance ,she was shocked .She went to Casim and said

People count money but your brother measures money in balance.

Casim was surprised to hear that his poor brother is measuring gold in the balance and he decided to go to Alibabas house and checkout whether his wife is saying the truth.

Casim went to Alibabas house and said " Dear brother yesterday night our parents appeared in my dream they were disappointed with me for not helping you in the hardships and that vision made me realize my mistakes .

I have decided to help not only you but all other poor people ,forgive me for my inappropriate behaviour towards you for the past years.

Alibaba replied , " Brother, I am so happy to see sudden change in you ,but now I don't need your help ,I got enough money by God's grace"

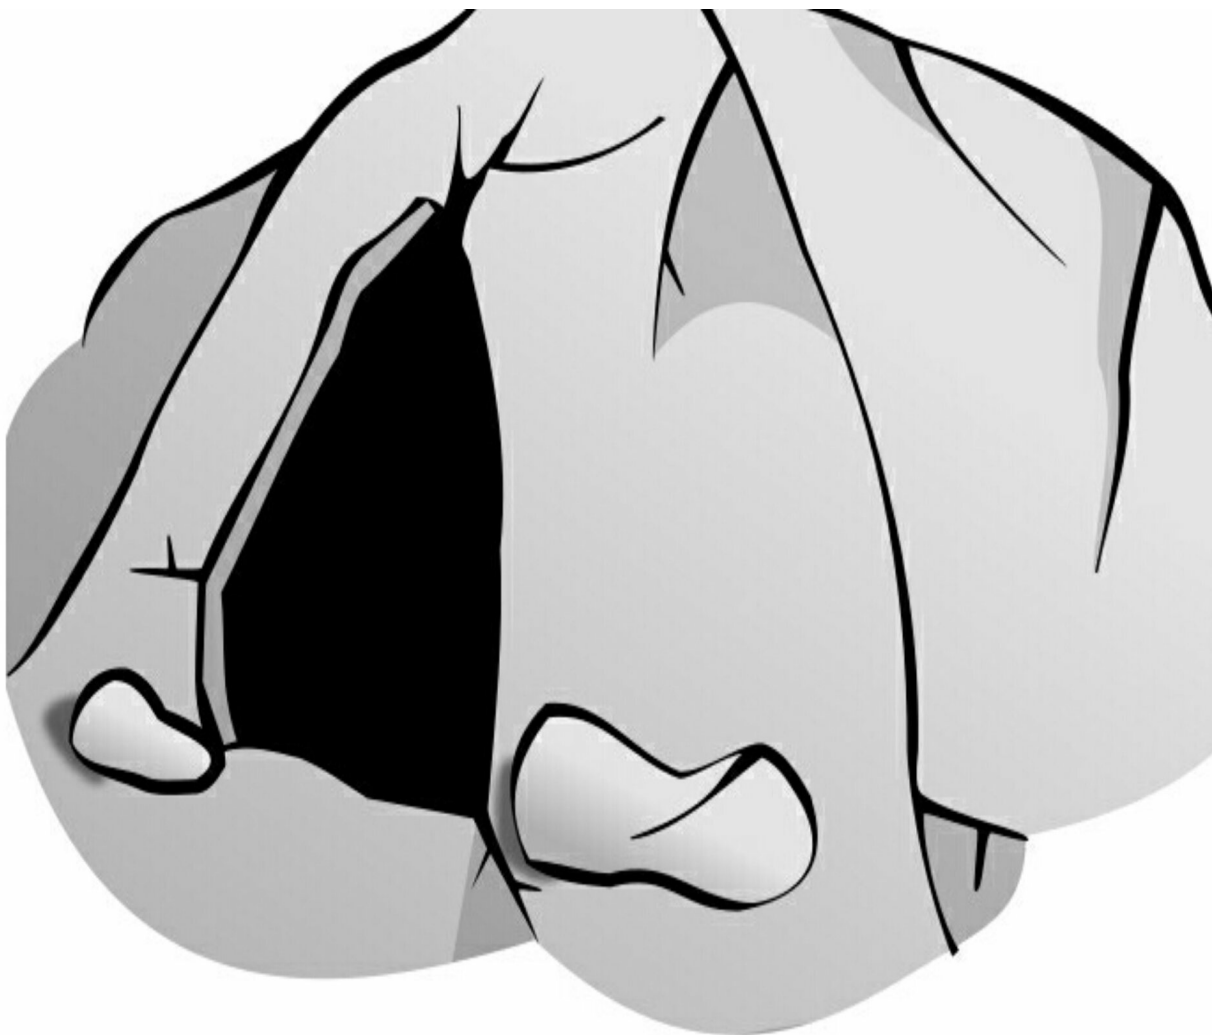

Casim asked eagerly " from where you got enough money, suddenly ?if I knew the source I would have distributed some money among the poor"

Alibaba replied" that's so nice of you, then he said the whole story of the secret cave to Casim.

Casim said"God have indeed blessed you by showing you that cave,let me go back my wife would be waiting for me"

Then he went to home and took lot of sacks and few donkeys with him and left to the forest to collect the gold from the cave.

He reached in front of the cave and said as Alibaba told him ."open sesame open" Cave opened

Casim went inside the cave and started to collect the gold coins ,

Unfortunately at that time thieves arrived they saw donkeys in front of the cave ,they went inside and saw Casim collecting their gold they became so much angry and they killed Casim with their sword.

As Casim didn't come back home for several days Alibaba went in search of him ,he reached in front of the cave and search inside the cave and he found Casims dead body above the pile of gold.

He went back home with Casim's body and buried it with religious customs.

After some days thieves came back to cave and they noticed that the dead body of Casim was missing.

They guessed that someone else had come to cave and took the body which means someone else also knows about the secret cave .

Head of the thieves told his gang members that " We have to find the person who has explored our secret and we should kill him before he informs others"

His gang members agreed,

All the thieves went to different parts of the city and enquired everyone that is there any death took place in the past week at any of the houses.

A flower seller said that Alibabas brother Casim died in the past week and I'm the one who brought flowers for the funeral ceremony .

Thieves asked her to show Alibabas house ,as he showed them his house they put a mark in the front door of the house.

Next day head of the thief went to Alibabas house with 40 oil pots ,he knocked at Alibabas house and asked him that " I am an oil merchant I'm coming from a long distance ,night have fallen and I can't travel anymore, I have heard that lot of thefts take place in this city ,can I stay at your house tonight?"

Kind Alibaba agreed

At night Alibabas wife was preparing food for Alibaba and the oil merchant but the cooking oil was finished .

So she thought she would take some from the merchants oil pot.she took a bowl and went near the oil pots .

But as she searched there was no oil in any of the pots instead people were hiding inside each of the pots and they had sharp swords with them .

By hearing footstep of Alibabas wife a person inside the pot asked "Head ,can we come out is it the right time to kill Alibaba.?"

Alibabas intelligent wife ,she sensed danger and guessed that it should be the 40 thieves in 40 pots and the merchant should be the head of the thieves they may be searching for the person who took their gold from cave.

She got scared at first, but then she gathered courage and went inside and brought some cinder and put it inside each of the pot and all the thieves died by burning.

Next day she trickfully invited head of the thief to watch a dance performance of her during the meal time. He agreed and during the dance performance she took a knife and went near the thief and stabbed him

Alibaba was shocked by seeing his wife's act and he enquired her why she did so. she showed him the people with swords inside the pot and explained the whole story.

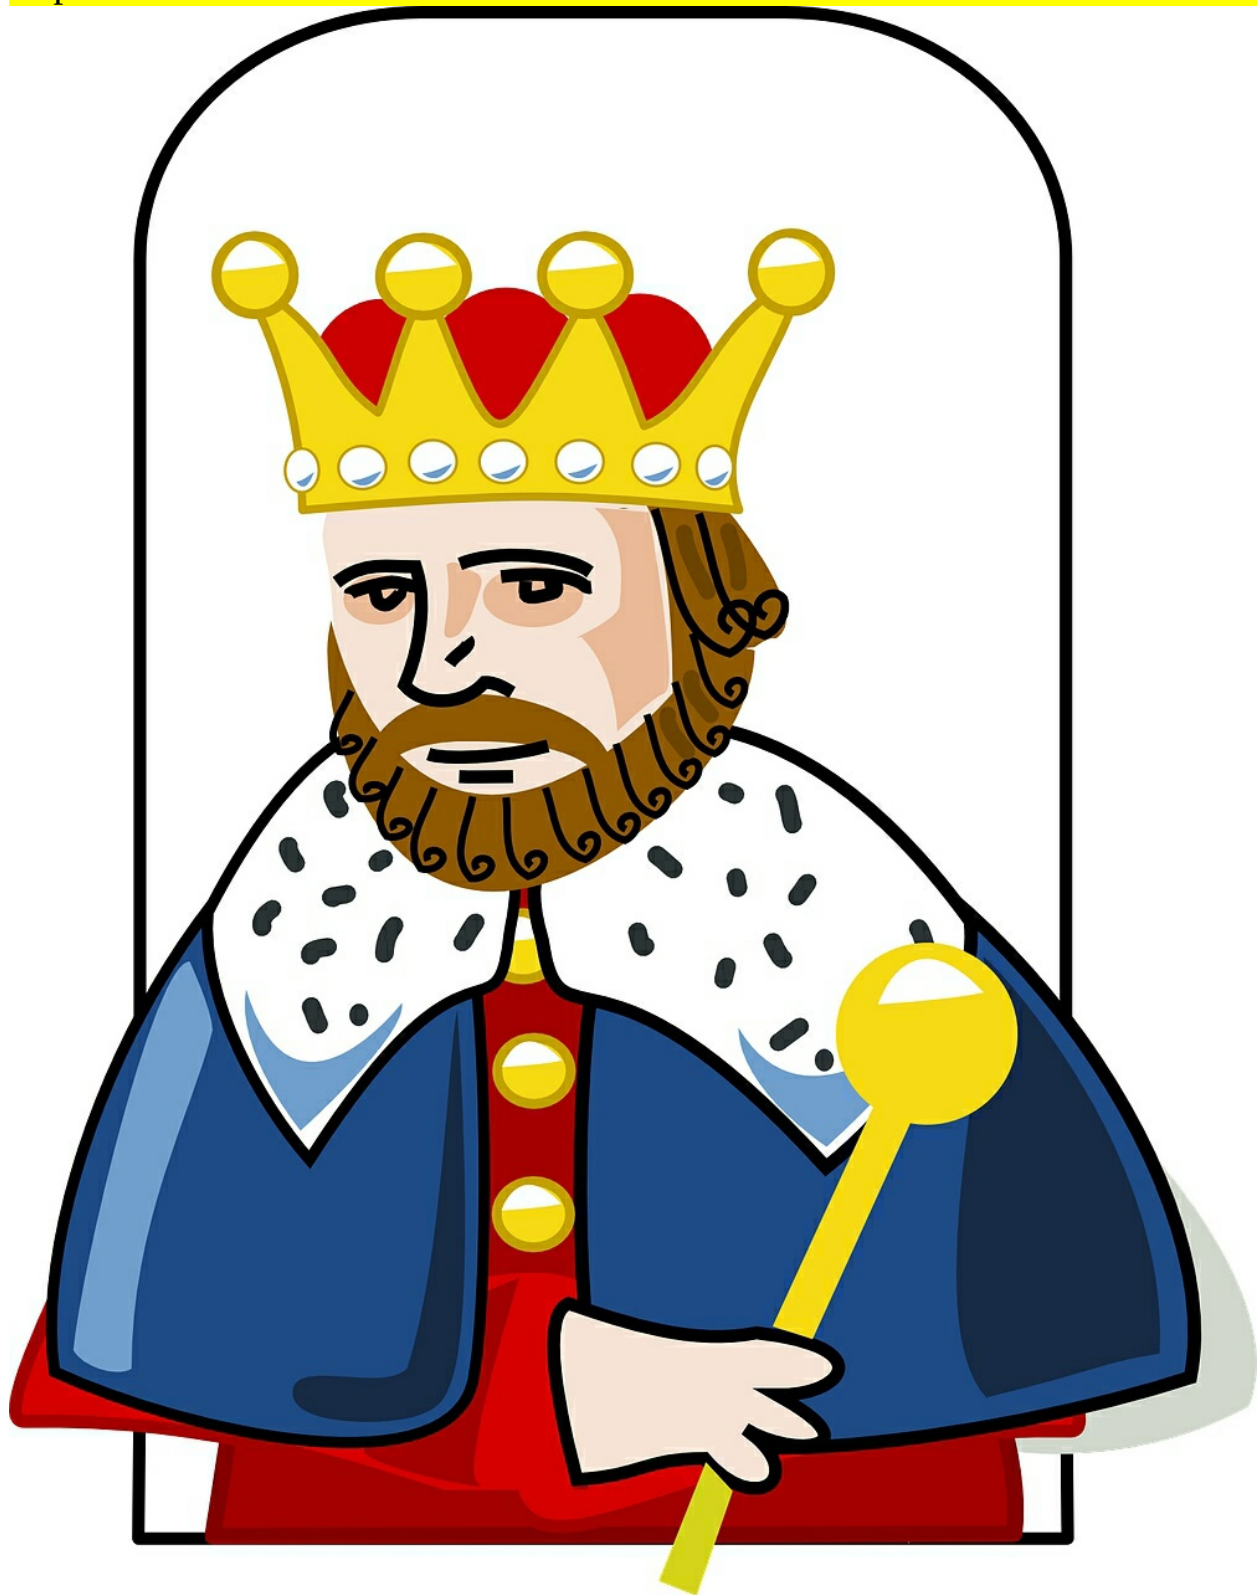

and said that oil merchant is actually the thief who came to kill Alibaba with his gangmembers

Alibaba praised his wife's intelligence and thanked her for saving his life.

So he married once again ,a woman of a good family and

she had two daughters just as Cinderella's age.

After few years Cinderella's father died due to illness. After his death Cinderella's stepmother's true nature was revealed, she was cruel and bitterly jealous of Cinderella's charm and beauty. She distributed the family fortune among her two daughters.

At the same time Cinderella was abused and humiliated and they made her a servant in her own home. Even at this situation Cinderella remained kind and gentle.

Cinderella was very kind to animals and birds,she used to feed them and take care of them .Cinderella's busy day would start with feeding stepmother's cat Lucifer she feeds him first ,so that he won't eat rats in the house.

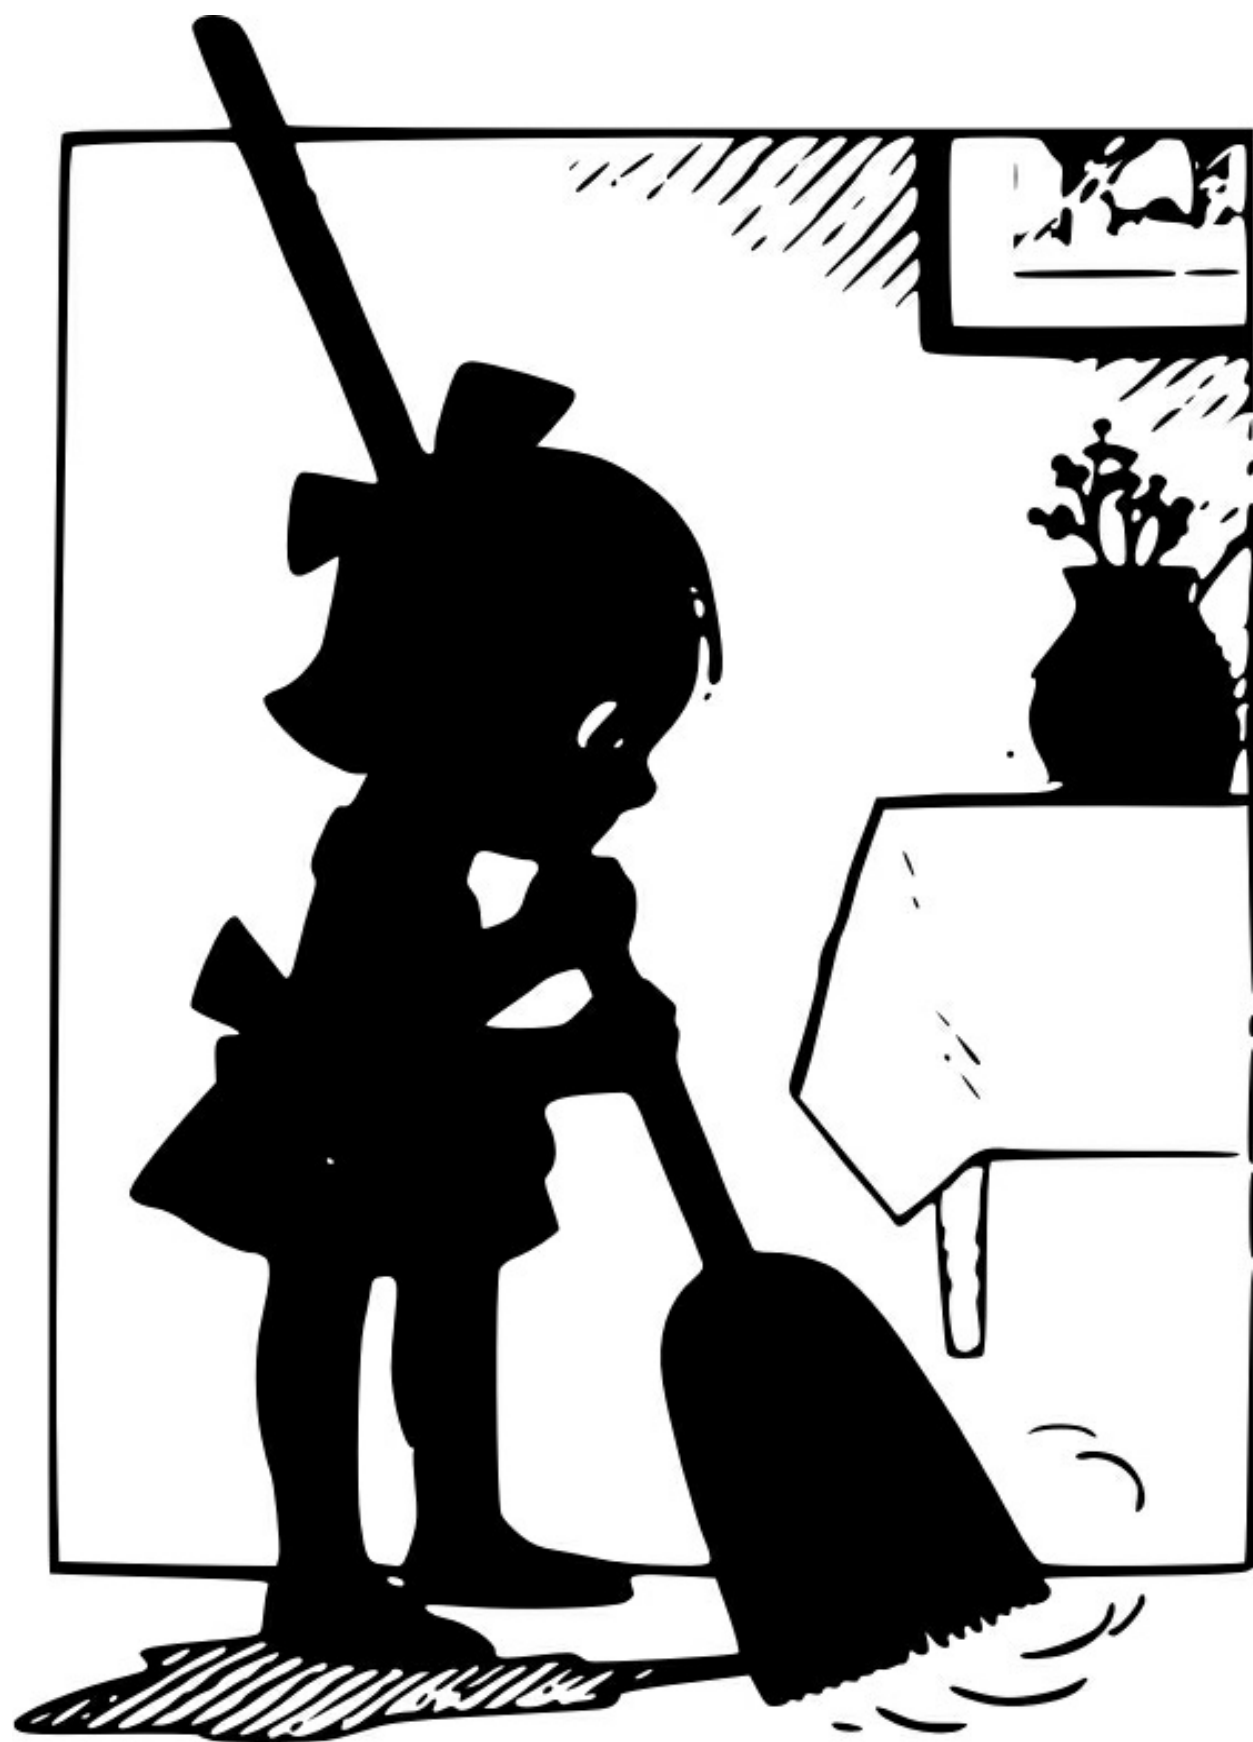

While Cinderella's stepmother set trap for rats in the house Cinderella used to rescue them.

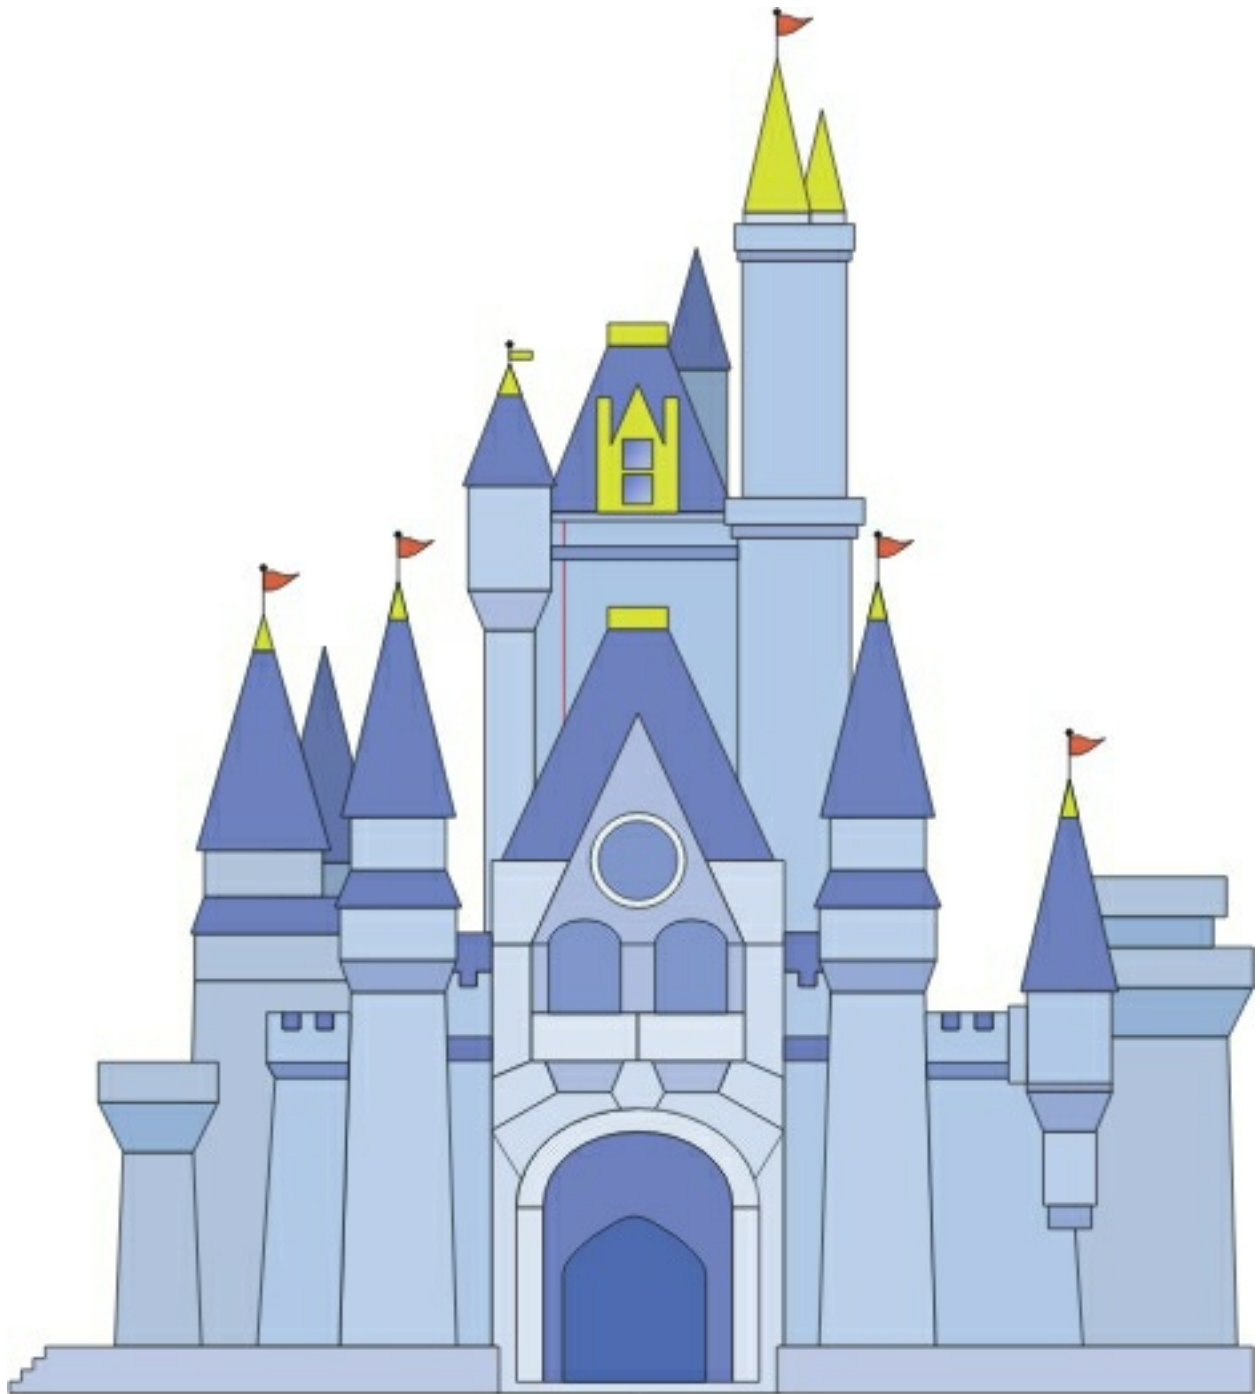

Animals and birds loved Cinderella and they used to help her all the time. birds would tie her hair , rats would decorate her dress and polish her shoes.

Every morning Cinderella's stepmother and stepsisters would start to shout "Cinderella where is my breakfast,bring me the coffee ,Is the laundries all cleaned? ,clean the staircase,clean the kitchen and windows again."

Poor Cinderella would Start to run here and there and will do all the works alone

Far away from Cinderella's home in the palace of the kingdom King was looking for an eligible bride for his son

.He ordered all the eligible girls to arrive at the palace ,so that prince would select any one of them as his bride.

Message reached Cinderella's home too. Cinderella's stepsisters were very much excited to go to the palace and meet the Prince.

By hearing the message Cinderella also asked her stepmother's permission to go to the palace. Stepmother said that "if you could complete all the household works within evening you can come with us" then the wicked woman would give her lot and lots of job to do so she won't finish all the works by evening.

Cinderella didn't get enough time to get her dress ready which she wanted to wear while going to the palace,

Cinderella got ready to go to the palace. She was looking so beautiful in the dress by seeing Cinderella her stepsisters became so jealous and they teared her dress with anger .

Cinderella's stepsisters also came to meet the Prince but got rejected.

At that time Cinderella entered in to the palace everyone were staring at her beauty .

The king's army were searching each and every home in the country

, they tried glass slippers on each and every girl in the country, but none of their feet fit in to the glass slipper

He asked Cinderella's stepmother that is there any other girls left in the house.She said no one else is in the house.

Poor Cinderella was crying in the room at that time birds took the key and gave it to Cinderella. Cinderella opened the door and came out to try the slippers .

At that time her wicked stepmother trickfully broke the slippers which were in the army man's hand. and the wicked woman thought that now they will not be able to try the slippers on Cinderella and won't be able to recognize the slippers owner.

But Cinderella took the other pair of slipper which she had with her.
